

STARK MEMORIAL PRONE TROPHY

The Stark Memorial Prone Trophy (bowl) was donated to NRA in memory of Robert S. Stark, of Alexandria, VA by his family. Robert S. Stark for many years supported Junior shooting in the Northern Virginia area helping many young shooters during their development. His son Matthew presented the Championship Trophy in Phoenix, AZ in 1979. The Pewter bowl is part of an antique English hunt set brought from England in the late 1800's and given to Mrs. Stark's great-grandmother's sister.

Match Conditions:

- 1979 Awarded to the Junior Standard Rifle Prone Champion.
- 1982 Re-designated for the Junior Smallbore Rifle Prone Champion
- 1997 Re-designated for and awarded to the Intermediate Junior Prone Champion at the National Championships.
- 2009 50 yard matches not fired.
