

CRAIG J. MILLER MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Craig J. Miller Memorial Trophy is a large bronze eagle mounted on a dark mahogany base. The trophy was donated by the National Rifle Association of America in remembrance of all the Federal Law Enforcement Officers who lost their lives during the terrorist attack upon the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001.

The trophy is awarded annually to the High Scoring Federal Officer at the National Police Shooting Championships.

Match Conditions:

2002 High Scoring Federal Officer competing in the Individual Championship. The Individual Championship is an aggregate of both the Revolver and Semi-Automatic Pistol 1500s.
